

Revera Expands Footprint in Quebec

Company partners with Réseau Sélection to acquire three premium Retirement communities

TORONTO, ON, October 2, 2015 – Revera Inc., a leading owner, operator and investor in senior living, today announced the acquisition of three Retirement communities in Quebec with Réseau Sélection, expanding its presence in the Quebec market. These communities will be managed by Réseau Sélection under the Réseau Sélection brand.

“The acquisition of these three exceptional communities in Quebec is an important step in our business strategy to grow, innovate and lead,” says Thomas G. Wellner, President and CEO of Revera. “Through our partnership with Réseau Sélection – which now includes 23 senior living communities in Quebec – we will continue to provide an excellent range of options for older adults in this key market.”

The three senior living communities that Revera has acquired with Réseau Sélection are in: West Island, Pointe-Claire; Nun’s Island, Île des Soeurs; and Côte-Saint-Luc, Montreal.
