

Revera Forms New Partnership with Habitat for Humanity Canada

MISSISSAUGA, Canada, January 18, 2018 – Revera, a leading owner, operator and investor in the senior living sector is excited to partner with Habitat for Humanity Canada as part of a new commitment to help families across Canada build strength, stability and independence through affordable home ownership.

“We are delighted to partner with Habitat for Humanity and look forward to making a tangible difference in the lives of Canadian families,” says Thomas Wellner, President and Chief Executive Officer of Revera. “We are excited to work with Habitat for Humanity Canada to create meaningful and lasting relationships in the communities in which we operate.”

Habitat for Humanity Canada is working toward a world where everyone has a decent and affordable place to call home. With the help of volunteers and Habitat homeowners, local Habitats in every province and territory help build and rehabilitate safe, decent and affordable homes, including single-family and multi-unit houses.

“It takes a lot of heart, a lot of hard work and an entire network of people – an entire community – to help build a Habitat home,” said Mark Rodgers, Habitat Canada’s President and CEO. “I am thrilled that Revera has chosen to partner with us to help provide more families with the tools that they need to build better, healthier lives, through affordable homeownership.”

This partnership is part of Revera’s community involvement program, Revera Giving. Every contribution the company makes – from advocating against ageism, to supporting the work of key community partners, or recognizing employee volunteerism - is an expression of Revera’s commitment to honouring the ageless spirit of people and to helping build stronger communities.
