

Revera Completes the Divestiture of its Home Health Division to Extencicare

Revera to focus on core businesses to drive growth and innovation

TORONTO, ON, May 1, 2015 – Revera Inc., a leading provider of seniors’ accommodation, care and services, today announced that it has completed the divestiture of its Canadian Home Health division to Extencicare Inc., which operates a home health care division (“ParaMed”).

Revera announced its intention to divest the Home Health division on January 15, 2015 following a strategic review of the company’s business portfolio.

“The completion of this transaction represents an important strategic milestone for Revera that will allow us to expand our core businesses of Retirement Living and Long Term Care,” said Thomas G. Wellner, President and CEO of Revera. “Capital from the divestiture will support investment in new growth opportunities and in innovations to improve the customer experience across our portfolio.”

All of Revera Home Health’s 5,700 frontline workers and the majority of management employees will transition to Extencicare to allow for continuity of care with clients and to support a seamless transition.

TD Securities Inc. acted as financial advisor and Goodmans LLP acted as legal advisor to Revera in connection with the transaction. RBC Capital Markets acted as financial advisor and Bennett Jones LLP acted as legal advisor to Extencicare in connection with the transaction.
