

Revera Inc. Acquires Cambridge Retirement Community Company welcomes newly-named Granite Landing

TORONTO, ON, August 3, 2016 – Revera Inc., a leading owner, operator and investor in senior living, today announced the acquisition of The Dunfield retirement community in Cambridge, Ontario, which has been renamed “Granite Landing.” The modern, 127-suite community was previously owned by Shiplake Properties, and offers accommodations for independent living, assisted living and memory care.

“With its vibrant residents and a wide range of amenities and services, this community embodies senior living at its finest. We are thrilled to welcome Granite Landing’s residents and employees to Revera,” says Thomas G. Wellner, President and CEO of Revera. “This acquisition represents an exciting milestone in our strategy to grow, innovate and lead in the senior living sector, and a unique opportunity to make an impact in a key market.”

With the addition of Granite Landing to Revera’s retirement portfolio, the company owns and operates 63 retirement communities in Ontario, and 97 across Canada.
